EDDC civil war

PULMAN'S VIEW EXCLUSIVE

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@lindlenews.co.uk

CIVIL war is raging within East Devon District Council (EDDC) after planners reacted angrily to a final report issued by the Overview and Scrutiny Committee.

The final report slated aspects of the planning department and the report has been pulled off EDDC's website.

The final report went down like a lead balloon with planners, and it is understood that some are demanding a rewrite.

They seem to have had some success as findings in the final report will be reviewed and recommendations were suddenly downgraded to mere drafts.

In addition to the alleged shortcomings of the council's planning department highlighted in last week's issue, Pulman's View can reveal that completed building projects are not routinely inspected to make sure they comply with approved plans. The Overview and Scrutiny Committee has expressed fears that builders and developers can make unauthorised changes with impunity as there is no mechanism for routine checks.

As reported last week the Overview and Scrutiny Committee set up a task and finish forum to probe the working relationship between district councillors and professional planning officers.

The 16-page final report acknowledged that good working relationships do exist, but it also accused planners of; keeping district councillors out of the loop for delegated planning applications; failing to return phone calls; failing to acknowledge e-mails and failing to use 'out of office' messages effectively.

But there is more. Headlined 'Enforcement', one passage in the final report states: "The forum had been very surprised to learn that no planning officer visited any site of an approved application to check that the development was in line with the approved plans."

"Visits were only made in response to a specific complaint made either by a councillor or member of the public."

"The forum was concerned that builders/developers could make undetected changes to applications."

"This concern was increased with the knowledge that there was no cross relationship between the building control activity and planning consent."

The EDDC press office is in the unusual situation that it speaks for both parties in this conflict.

Pulman's View offered the planning department opportunity to comment through the press office, and also asked EDDC bosses if steps will be taken to make sure that completed developments are routinely inspected.

None of the questions were directly answered, instead EDDC's press office issued the following statement: "The Overview and Scrutiny Committee considered the report, but agreed that some aspects of the findings needed to be reviewed in more detail."

"They therefore recommended that this further review be carried out before the matter goes forward to the Cabinet for consideration later this year. Until that time, it would not be helpful to comment further."

The idea was that the Overview and Scrutiny Committee would consider the final report and make recommendations to the EDDC Cabinet on Thursday, September 29th.

When asked about the final report's online status, the spokesperson said: "The recommendations in the report are still being debated, so it is in draft form and that is why it is not available online."

The statement didn't explain why the final report was initially made available online before being pulled, though.

Councillor Peter Bowden, who wrote the final report foreword, directed Pulman's View to the EDDC press office when asked for comment.

Project starts monthly event

AN east Devon volunteering project has setup a monthly gardening training session.

The Side by Side Project offers support to people suffering from mental ill health and the training session will take place at the groups Garden and Craft Project at Offwell, near Honiton.

A Side by Side spokesman said: "The ethos of the project is to encourage emotional well-being and physical health by offering people experiencing mental ill health the chance to engage in a regular programme of meaningful group volunteering and social activities. This enables them to regain social skills, boost self confidence and develop their practical knowledge.

"If you or anyone you know is suffering from mental ill health and would like more information about joining The Side by Side Project get in touch."

These included raffles, a barbecue and a charity football match in which Peco played Axminster Tool Centre.

ARTIST FOR GARAGE JOB

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AXMINSTER Arts has appointed an artist to lead the Webster Garage frontage project.

The prominent eyesore in West Street has received much negative publicity over the years.

The long-term future of the dilapidated building in central Axminster remains undecided, but its frontage will undergo a substantial facelift. As previously reported, Axminster Arts received permission from the building's owner to provide a mural, which would depict how the garage looked in the 1950s and 1960s.

The name of the artist has not yet been revealed, but a 3D model of the proposed design will go on public display soon.

Tim Leat, Axminster Arts Webster's project co-ordinator, said: "We are pleased to announce that we have now secured the services of an artist for our project to improve the frontage of Webster's.

"We will be inviting the public to come and have a look and give us their views and memories of Axminster when Webster's was an important part of our town.

"We are hoping that not only will this project help improve Webster's but will also lead to a renewed interest in the town's history."

More information will soon follow.

School's head boy and head girl are named

A TRIO of heads posed for photos at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster when headteacher Martin Smith introduced new head boy Marcus Wood and new head girl Jean Delos Santos.

Mr Smith said 10 students made the shortlist, and added: "Competition was fierce.

"Rob Selby, Year 11 leader, and myself had a difficult job in selecting the best candidates. In the next few weeks I am meeting the new team of heads and deputies to plan how we enhance their roles across the college.

"What struck me during the interview process was how talented and committed these students were and how much pride they take in belonging to Axe Valley Community College."

The following students were appointed as deputies: Henry Wilde, Harrison Bricknell, Matthew Rose, Jessica Barrett, Ellie Henagulph, Rosie Clarke, Abbie Dowse and Sophie Windsor.

He did say, however: "The report has been well received, so on that basis I'm content that good progress is being made."

Whilst not necessarily a representative opinion of all EDDC members, district councillor Roger Giles (Ottery St Mary Town Ward) said: "I thought the report was a good one which made some constructive recommendations to achieve service improvement."

It is understood that planners blame a lack of resources for the non-routine inspections of completed developments.

Accidental cooker fire

A COOKER fire broke out at a property in Perrys Gardens, Ottery, just after mid-day on Friday, September 30th.

Firefighting appliances from Ottery, Exeter and Sidmouth were despatched and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Fire crews confirmed a small fire involving a cooker which was out on the arrival of the fire service."

"Fire crews inspected the appliance to ensure it was safe."

"The cause of the fire is believed to be accidental."

Sainsbury's opens its doors next week

SUNDAY TRADING AND 116 CAR PARKING SPACES

THE new Sainsbury's in Ottery St Mary is scheduled to open its doors for the first time on Wednesday, October 12th.

Store manager, Warren Knight, said: "Sainsbury's is eager to become part of the Ottery community and we're looking forward to opening."

"With a couple of weeks to go there's still work to do and the construction team, Kier Construction, are working hard to ensure everything is ready."

The Hind Street store, which will be open from 8am to 8pm Monday to Saturday and 10am to 4pm on Sundays, will include a fish, deli and hot food counters.

Contractors have installed eco features such as sun pipes, which make the most of natural light and reduce the need for artificial light; rain water harvesting, which reduces water usage by recycling it in the store's toilets, and a "bee hotel" that provides the right type of habitat to support growth of the UK's honey bees.

Sainsbury's will also be providing 116 parking spaces, including eight disabled and five mother-and-toddler spaces, which allow two hours of free parking.

Mr Knight added: "It is a big day for us and for the town, and one we have all been looking forward to. "The store will enable residents who usually travel to Honiton, Exeter or other towns to do their shopping to come to Ottery."

"I'd like to encourage everyone to check out the new Sainsbury's, take advantage of the two hours' free parking and visit the town's shops."

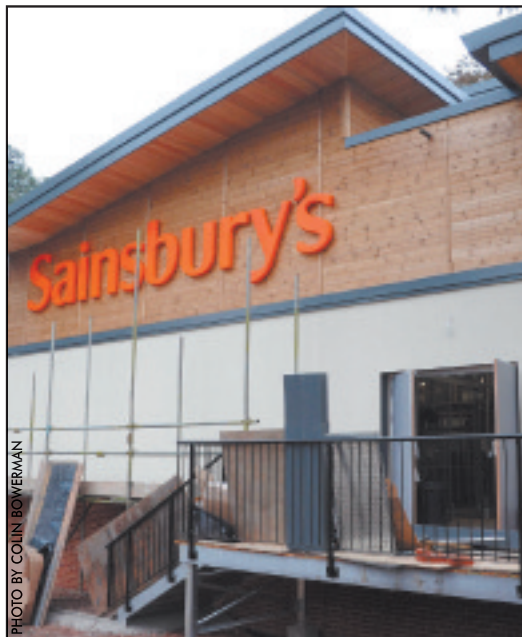

Ottery Chamber of Commerce Chairman Marc Perkins, said: "Ottery already has a strong range of retail outlets that attracts shoppers from across the region."

"The new Sainsbury's with free town centre parking for two hours, Ottery's unique heritage and its range of specialist independent shops mark the town out as a great place to shop during the run-up to Christmas and beyond."

"We are pleased to get the construction of the store behind us and look forward to Sainsbury's opening its doors."

"Potentially, the knock-on effect on Ottery's other shops could be really beneficial and we look forward to seeing a positive outcome in the weeks after the store opens."

Hotel wine-tasting

THE Fairwater Head Hotel near Axminster is planning a series of wine-tasting events over the next few months.

The plan for each event is to focus on a specific type of wine.

The first event, on Thursday, October 13th, will be tasting a selection of good quality everyday wines, combined with a selection of canapés.

Future events will have wines from specific countries along with dishes from the same country.

Adam Southwell, proprietor of The Fairwater Head Hotel, said: "The wine club won't be at all pretentious."

"In fact, it will be a relaxed event where people can come and go as they please. It's not aimed at the wine buffs. It's aimed at everyone who simply enjoys drinking wine."

"We ran a trial tasting a couple of months ago and the feedback was fantastic."

"The plan is to run a different tasting event every few weeks. By making this a free-to-join wine club we will also be able to make sure everyone gets a personal invite to each tasting."

Wine consumption in the UK continues to grow with sales predicted to reach 151 million cases per annum by 2014.

In fact, the UK is already spending more on wine than the French, according to International Wine and Spirit Research.

For more information about the Fairwater Wine Club call the hotel on 01297 678349.

NHS urges flu vaccine

THE NHS in Devon is urging people in east Devon who are in "at risk" groups to visit their GP to get a free flu vaccination.

As part of an NHS Devon statement, Dame Professor Sally Davies said: "People often don't think about the flu vaccine until the virus is circulating – but by then it could be too late.

"It takes five to 10 days for the vaccine to take effect so it is important to get the flu jab before flu is about. I'd urge everyone eligible for the flu vaccine, particularly those in the clinical at risk groups, to get vaccinated as soon as they are able."

Clinical at risk groups include those with:

- A heart problem;
 - A chest complaint or breathing difficulties including, bronchitis, emphysema;
 - A kidney disease;
 - lowered immunity due to disease or treatment (such as steroid medication or cancer treatment);
 - A liver disease;
 - A history of stroke or a transient ischaemic attack (TIA);
 - Diabetes;
 - A neurological condition eg multiple sclerosis (MS) or cerebral palsy; and
 - A problem with, or removal of, their spleen e.g. sickle cell disease.
- The flu vaccine is free to everyone in these groups.
- In addition, it is also offered free of charge to:
- People aged 65 years and over;
 - All pregnant women; and
 - The main carer of an older or disabled person.

CHURCH HOSTS EXHIBITION

By ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@hindlenews.co.uk

MORE than 400 people turned up for an environmental and energy-saving exhibition at the parish church in Ottery on Saturday, September 24th.

Those attending could listen to a speech by environmentalist and magazine editor Satish Kumar.

He edits Resurgence, which is a publication promoting ecological sustainability, social justice and spiritual values.

Practical advice about environmental issues was also on offer from a mixture of organisations including East Devon District Council, Devon County Council, South West Water, Sustainable Ottery, The East Devon Green Party, Recycling in Ottery and The Little Green Solar Company.

Exhibition organisers Ann and John Masters, said: "The exhibition was a great success. Well over 400 people from the local area attended and there was a real buzz throughout the day.

"Not only did exhibitors share top tips and information about how we can all take relatively easy steps to save energy, but Mr Kumar gave an awe-inspiring speech about the relationship between man and the environment — something that resonated well with listeners."

Gilbert Stephens LLP Solicitors sponsored the exhibition and Liz Govier, from the company's office on Broad Street, commented: "The exhibition was a resounding success and it was great to see our local community get behind such important issues.

"We look forward to working with the event organisers again in the future."

The winners of the recycling themed craft activity can be found on the sponsor's website along with details on how children can claim their prizes.

Village appeals for online votes to secure grant

THE organisation behind a village play area has its sights set on expansion and another grant.

It was in May this year that a £15,000 renovation bursary was given to the play area in Chardstock by Robinsons Fruit Shoot's Parents for Playgrounds Campaign.

Chardstock Park Trust hopes to make even more improvements and its secretary, Donna Jacobs, said: "The play area is an ongoing project and our next phase is to provide a toddler play area."

"Currently, the only equipment is two old timber swings."

"Chardstock Play Area has been selected to apply for a grant of £6,000 from NatWest Community Force."

"The winners are chosen by the amount of online votes in favour of their project."

"£6,000 would enable us to start the next phase of our plan, to provide the toddler play area."

The Chardstock project is presented as follows to potential voters: "The park trust committee (volunteer) has organised several working parties over weekends and re-opened the play park after it was closed for two years."

"Fund raising events have ensued and in July 2011 the first set of apparatus was installed."

"Volunteer fund raising continues as the next phase is to improve facilities for toddlers in the village."

"The current park trust was formed by a group of volunteers from the village in December 2009 with the primary aim to make safe and re-open the village playpark."

"The park had been closed for two years prior to this which left no safe areas for young people to play."

"The committee is very much involved in the local community with several volunteer working parties which has enabled the park to be made safe and opened again for general use."

Those wishing to cast their vote can do so online at communityforce.natwest.com.

Voting will close on October 23rd.

◆ THE winners of the Dor Evans Writing Award were presented with their prizes at Colyton Library on Thursday, September 22nd. The award was instigated by Colyton resident David Evans in memory of his wife, last year. David Evans is pictured with the winners; in the adult section are Elizabeth Cochrane (3rd prize) Jacky Roberts-Wake (2nd) and Marion Hinds (1st). In front of them are junior section winners Liberty Gaukroger (2nd) and Harriet Gaukroger (1st)

School recognised for international education

COLYTON Grammar School is a proud holder the British Council's International School Award, given in recognition of its work to "bring the world into the classroom".

The award is also described as "a badge of honour for schools that do outstanding work in international education, such as through links with partner schools overseas".

Headteacher Paul Evans said: "We are delighted that work across the curriculum and especially in modern foreign languages to give students an international perspective has been recognised."

"In areas like rural east Devon, the need to look to other communities and cultures is particularly important."

"This year students have worked with young people in Europe and Africa and we have even forged a link with Qatar and have a student on expedition in the Arctic."

"We are excited about continuing to expand our international horizons in the year ahead."

2011 has seen more than 800 schools be presented with the award.

John Rolfe from the British Council, said: "Many congratulations to all the schools across the UK who have been successful in gaining the International School Award."

"We're very grateful to all the schools for their excellent commitment to the enriching, creative and innovative international dimensions of teaching and learning."

"Their inspirational work is vital preparation for all our young people, helping them to better understand their place in the world and supporting the development of their skills in an increasingly global economy."

Antiques centre to stage own festival

WITH its 85 dealers, two firms of auctioneers and numerous associated specialist firms, Honiton can be justly proud of its reputation as the antiques centre of the South West.

From Monday, November 14th until Sunday, November 20th, all of those businesses will join forces for the first ever Honiton Antiques Festival — part of National Antiques Week, which is being celebrated around the country.

Backed by Honiton Town Council and its cayer, councillor Vernon Whitlock, Honiton Chamber of Commerce, Honiton Museum and Honiton Tourist Information Centre, the town's dealers, restorers, auctioneers and curators alike will be opening their doors to a week-long mouth-watering range of activities including lectures, exhibitions, auction views and displays.

Said organiser Elizabeth Chilcott: "Honiton is the jewel in Devon's crown when it comes to hunting for antiques and by joining forces, we the traders in antiques-related businesses in the town, intend to attract a big influx of collectors and enthusiasts during the seven days of the festival.

"We also hope to showcase the diverse range of skills and knowledge our people have about antiques and fine art from all periods in history.

"We're sure there will be something to interest people of all ages and tastes."

The Festival will also promote the message that "Antiques are Green" and encourage new, young collectors who might be looking to turn their hobby into a career.

The organisers will communicate with careers advisers in the county and students from Honiton Community College will film events during the week.

Said BBC Antiques Roadshow personality Mark Hill: "National Antiques Week aims to promote antiques and collecting.

"Over the past year, a growing number of young people have seen the value and individuality of antiques, and the thrill of the hunt, and begun to buy antiques and vintage pieces for their homes.

"Furthermore, a report commissioned by the antiques trade from industry experts Carbon Clear has found that an antique chest of drawers is 16 times more eco-friendly than a modern, flatpack equivalent. Antiques really are green."

Honiton's auctioneers are also backing the Festival. Bearnas, Hampton and Littlewood will be holding a series of free specialist valuation days culminating on Friday, November 18th with a reception and preview of an antiques auction, while Chilcotts will auction the Carl Rosen Collection of Honiton Pottery on Saturday November 19th.

Antique shops and both auction rooms will be open on Sunday, November 20th and Honiton Museum is opening especially and the tourist information centre will have longer opening hours offering assistance to guests and visitors throughout the week.

Complete details are available online at www.honitonantiquesfestival.com.

Lisa starts school uniform exchange

By ANDERS LARSSON

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A MONTHLY trade-and-donate uniform stall has been established at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster.

The stall, which is the brainchild of Lisa Ovenden, also trades in associated garments such as PE items and footwear — including football boots.

The idea is that garments no longer required are donated to the stall or traded in for another size.

Alternatively, those in need of a uniform can buy one, the money going towards school equipment.

Lisa has two children at the college and she got the idea when buying uniforms for them.

She said: "I bought the uniforms but ran out of money before I had bought the rugby shirt.

"As a parent on a low income with two children currently at the Axe Valley, and after speaking to other parents in similar circumstances, I feel there is a need for a trade and donate scheme for clean, good order second-hand uniform.

"If you have any items you would like to donate or if you would be interested in using this scheme, I would like to hear from you.

"I would be happy to collect your donations — accepting blazers, shirts, trousers, skirts, polo shirts, coats, PE items and shoes. All must be clean and in reasonable repair, but the odd button doesn't matter."

She praised Tesco in Axminster,

Musbury Garage, Co-op's Harepath Road branch in Seaton and Mole Avon in Axminster for donating coat-hangers, rails, crates and washing equipment.

The stall is trading on the last Monday of each month in the reception area from 12noon-4pm.

Because of half-term, though, the October session will be on Monday, October 17th. Lisa can be contacted on 07923 104 630.

Firm's farewell to long-serving Laurence, 65

AXMINSTER Carpets has said goodbye to a long-serving employee.

As a matter of fact, Laurence Hitchcock was a company employee long before current MD Josh Dutfield was born.

Mr Hitchcock turned 65 on May 23rd this year, but stayed on until mid-August.

He joined the company in 1969 working on the looms — and he clocked out more than 42 years later as purchasing manager.

Mr Hitchcock admits that the carpet industry wasn't his first choice of career path.

Having a keen interest in wildlife, Mr Hitchcock left east Devon after school to work at Jersey Zoo, which was owned by the late naturalist, zoologist, conservationist and author Gerald Durrell.

But Mr Hitchcock, used to the open spaces of Devon, found Jersey a bit claustrophobic, so instead took up a position with a horticultural nursery in Exeter.

He stayed for three years but found that opportunities to progress were very limited.

"So the suggestion was that I come here [Axminster Carpets] and work," he explained.

An Axminster Carpets bulletin described Mr Hitchcock's career at the company as follows: "Known as Laurie to his close friends, he began his career by working on the looms, and expanded his knowledge of the business by becoming involved in all aspects of production and distribution.

"He was no stranger to the factory - his late father Cecil started as the first company secretary in 1937.

"His brother Alan was until recently employed at the yarn spinning mill in Buckfast.

"In 1975 Laurence was co-opted into the maintenance department where he worked for 15 years before being offered the position of purchasing manager.

"His knowledge of production and maintenance processes proved to be invaluable when buying machinery parts and engineering spares to help keep the looms running.

"He was also responsible for purchasing jute and cotton together with the gas, electricity and oil supplies for the company."

MD Josh Dutfield added: "He has been a true gentleman and witnessed three generations of our family coming through the business, which can't have been easy. He made me feel very welcome and gave me a lot of support."

When asked how he is coping with retirement, Mr Hitchcock said: "It's the same old story, your feet don't touch the ground. You are catching up with friends and visiting places you should have done years ago."

He is a keen gardener, likes to spend time with the grandchildren and he is an active member of Axminster Museum Committee and Axminster Heritage Association.

He praised the company and his colleagues for the send off, and said: "It's a super company."

Many, many thanks from the ladies who lunch

EDITOR — I would like to thank the Seaton's Voice Team, and in particular Annette, for hosting a wonderful lunch for the "Ladies who Lunch" crowd who get together once a year just for fun.

They provided a sumptuous luncheon, buffet-style with all the trimmings you could imagine, accompanied by soft drinks, wine and coffee.

The room they have decorated for the "Youth Club" is a perfect setting, being modern and bright with comfortable seating and a little light music playing in the background.

Annette hosted the party with a level of service and attention I have not enjoyed for years.

So if you have a function coming up, look at what they can offer you. I send sincere thanks from myself and all the "ladies" that lunched.

Outdoor gym is a lovely surprise

EDITOR — I enjoyed all the well-written articles and the lovely coloured photos in Pulman's View on September 20th.

Regarding the new outdoor gym in Seafeld Gardens, we ventured up there to look, not knowing what to expect as, being keen on many sports, I had no need to go to a gym since my schooldays 60 years ago.

What a lovely surprise! The layout was so attractive with benches to sit and watch the "performers" on those sturdy training machines.

They look so inviting we think we might have a try when no one is looking and so strengthen our old bones and muscles and have a good laugh at the same time!

Congratulations to all involved in this wonderful project. It is a real asset for Seaton.

Society looks for members

EDITOR — I am looking for Maltese people in the south west to become members of the newly formed Maltese Cultural Society.

Looking for Maltese people is not easy here as, unlike most ethnic groups, they do not group together and tend instead to amalgamate into British society.

Our society was set up so that once in a while we Maltese can get together. We will be holding Lejla Maltija (Maltese evenings) throughout the year, in different parts of the region.

If your publication can help me to contact Maltese people living in your area it would be of great help. People can contact me by either calling 01278 446488 or emailing matthewsgreen50@aol.co.uk.

AUTUMN has loomed large in the diary and that means Jurassic Folk will soon be back in action at The Grove, Seaton.

The last session before the break in July was a real blast and if the new season lives up to that one it's going to get the old circulation buzzing around like a beehive.

As always, it didn't depend on a star performer but relied on a great diversity of song, music, poetry and complete nonsense to send everyone away feeling they'd had a great night, and what value for money.

Without going into a long list of everyone who contributed, mention must be made of a few of the highlights.

Firstly, because it was their first public performance, come Kristabelle and Darcy, two young ladies who not only impressed with their rendition of two contemporary songs but also introduced a welcome touch of glamour to the proceedings.

Lizzie Brewsher brought along a rent-a-mob fan club and had everyone in stitches with a never-before-heard version of Early One Morning.

All the way from Tasmania came a generously bewhiskered gent by the name of Rob Hill, who seemed to have mislaid his grass-roots trade union choir, who were visiting Tolpuddle, and he regaled the company with a song from their show.

Ben and Alana, without the other member of their trio, made a welcome late appearance, and it was good to see the hurdy-gurdy man, Tony Reader, again.

Of the regular stars, Ted Dowse, Annie the Nightingale, two Mikes, Fran and Anita, and the Amycrofters all made impressive contributions to a memorable night.

So, to hear more, definitely not of the same but maybe similar, The Grove is the place to be. As always, admission is free.

Society raises over £1,000 for radio's ambulance appeal

LIVING up to their reputation for staging high-quality annual exhibitions alongside very successful charity fundraising, Newton Poppleford Art Society members were delighted to hear that their efforts had contributed more than £1,000 towards the BBC Radio Devon Air Ambulance Appeal.

Presenting a cheque for £1,022.75 to Radio Devon's Judi Spiers, society chairman Rosemary Boud said: "This year, we decided to support the Radio Devon Air Ambulance Appeal to help raise £600,000 for the cost of a replacement helicopter.

"We received many compliments from our visitors on the standard of our work and the exhibition was remarkably successful in terms of sales.

"This, together with the fact that we were able to raise such a generous amount of money for a very worthwhile cause, is all very gratifying."

Caroline Creer, fundraising director for Devon Air Ambulance Trust, said: "We are grateful to all members of Newton Poppleford Art Society for such a successful exhibition and to everyone who went along.

"We have already received funds of £934.75 and would particularly like to thank everyone who gift-aided their donation which will account for a further £88, bringing the total to a fantastic £1,022.

"Gift aid allows UK tax payers to boost their donation to the Charity by 25 per cent, at no cost to themselves."

Members of the Society donated fifty-four 12" x 10" paintings on the theme of 'Up, Up and Away', which were on sale for £15 each.

Christine elected at annual meeting

THE annual meeting of the Ottery St Mary Embroiderers' Group was held on September 12th when Christine Barber was elected representative of the group.

She replaced Ann Holden, who has held the position for three years. Ann was presented with a small gift in appreciation of her hard work and dedication to the group.

The Ottery St Mary group held two exhibitions this year, one in May at The Institute, Ottery, and the other at Bicton College as part of the FibreFest.

The exhibitions showed the work done by the group over the last two years and were very bright and colourful. Both occasions were well attended by the public and several people showed an interest in joining.

If you are interested in joining the group phone Pat Snelling on 01404 8112651 for further details.

TONY JACKSON

Sometimes it's easy to blame the predator

LAST week, driving down a narrow lane near Puddletown I saw a dozen or more swallows, most of them young of the year, darting back and forth over some ponds, taking advantage of a hatch of insects.

These birds, the last I think I shall see this year, will shortly be winging their way south on their long trek. Meanwhile, it is good news to learn that a survey of swifts in the Blackdown Hills area has been encouraging.

Local people have responded to the request for sightings from the RSPB and the Devon Wildlife Trust, with Hemyock emerging as the swift "hot spot", with a reported six breeding pairs nesting in the village.

These masters of the air, birds which never seem to tire of scything through the skies on scimitar wings in search of insects, only land to nest, spending their entire lives in the air hunting for food. Their short, feathered legs are useless for walking and there is speculation that the bird sleeps on the wing.

Swifts are only with us for about three months, arriving in late spring and departing for southern Africa by the end of July.

Sadly, numbers have declined over the last decade, largely it is suspected, because of a lack of nesting holes in houses as a result of modern building techniques. The birds prefer to nest in eaves or gables, but as these sites vanish so too do the swifts.

However, artificial nests can be introduced or three inch holes created in buildings for the birds. Usually two white eggs are laid and there is only time for a single brood before the birds depart. Up to three years ago I regularly saw swifts screaming high over my village, but since then have seen not a single one.

The news that two peregrine falcons have been found poisoned near St Just in Cornwall is absolutely disgraceful, and further evidence that some deranged or misguided idiot is at work in the West Country.

Four goshawks and a buzzard were earlier poisoned in Devon. The RSPB have offered a reward of £1,000 for information leading to a conviction and it is to be hoped that before long the cowardly poisoner will be in the dock. There is a fine of £5,000 for each offence or up to six month's imprisonment. As the poison used, is a banned pesticide called carbofuran, one would hope that the police will be able to trace the culprit. Anyone who has any suspicions should take the right course and inform the police.

Meanwhile, whilst the news that otters are now present in every English county and thriving, already the first report of a major attack on ornamental fish has been reported from Carlisle where, it seems, a couple have had their goldfish pond raided again and again. Each morning they were greeted by the sight of scales and the remains of their fish, and despite re-stocking and covering the pond with a net, the otter raids continued. The animal was filmed actually removing the netting before setting about slaughtering the pond's occupants.

The fact is, of course, that otters, members of the weasel family, are predators, living largely on fish and, it is inevitable, that owners of stocked ponds and fisheries will in the future see their waters under assault from these animals. One can hardly blame the otter which is simply following its natural instinct. But the fact is that if we create artificial situations in the countryside with stocked fish or pheasants, we inevitably attract the attention of predators, be they foxes, otters or mink. It is so easy to blame the culprit, but it is we who are really responsible in the first place.

Concerts in memory of a musician

A SERIES of concerts has been announced in memory of an east Devon musician, and in aid of a charity.

Joanna Leach, from Shute, died aged 73 in April in Hospiscare's Exeter facility after a long battle with ovarian cancer.

She was a widely-acclaimed pianist and recording artist who, for example, collaborated with German-born Andreas Boyde on his professional recordings through her label Athene Records.

It has now been confirmed that Mr Boyde is to play at a special charity event in memory of Joanna.

The concert starts at 7.30pm on Saturday November 26th in St Paul's Church, Honiton.

Concert organiser Liz Tirard said: "Andreas and Joanna became close friends, so this concert will be very poignant and very special."

The programme has been carefully compiled to include some of Joanna's favourite pieces by Brahms, Haydn, Liszt and Schumann.

Mr Boyde's special thank you and tribute is to be a fundraising concert for Hospiscare in her memory.

Joanna's husband, Mike Beville, has confirmed that the concert will be the first in a series by the Joanna Leach Foundation to raise cash for Hospiscare, which supports patients across Exeter, mid and east Devon.

He said: "The recitals are a way of expressing thanks in a practical manner for the loving and sensitive care she received in the Exeter hospice during the final days of her life."

Mr Boyde has played with leading orchestras across the world at venues from the Royal Festival Hall in London to the Hamburg Musikhalle.

Tickets range in price from £10 to £15 and are available from Honiton Tourist Information Centre (TIC) on 01404 43716 or by emailing honitontic@btconnect.com.

Tickets for a special post-concert reception and buffet costing £10 are also available from the TIC.

Kids are finally presented with Royal Wedding mugs

CHILDREN in Combe Raleigh have finally received their Royal Wedding souvenir mugs, four months after the Westminster Abbey ceremony.

An initial delivery of commemorative mugs failed to arrive in time for the wedding.

A number of organisations in the Combe Raleigh parish decided to present those under 16 with a mug to mark the royal occasion and the presentation was eventually made during the most recent Bank Holiday.

A total of 60 children were invited to receive their mementos, and mugs were also presented to founder members of Raleigh Kids' Club.

Core group to transition

A CORE group of seven will work behind the scenes to make Honiton a Transition Town.

As reported last week, Transition Network is a movement supporting and orchestrating community-led responses to climate change.

The network hopes to establish itself in Honiton and staged a public meeting at Montgomery's on Wednesday, September 28th.

It was chaired by Green Honiton town councillor Sharon Pavey, who said after the meeting: "Twenty-three people attended to discuss the possibility of Honiton following towns like Sidmouth, Exmouth and Ottery St Mary by joining the Transition Town movement."

"Thank you to everyone who took the time to come along to discuss what we can do as a community to address climate change and diminishing resources."

"We now have over 20 supporters and a core group of seven to start work behind the scenes before our first public event or project."

If you would like to receive updates about the initiative, email Sharon at sdcapey@gmail.com.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

MANY churches of all traditions have recently observed Back to Church Sunday when regular worshippers are encouraged to bring a friend with them.

Another suggestion from Citizens Advice is that it wants more churches to host advice centres and has produced a guide to help set them up.

The chair of Citizens Advice, Rt Revd John Gladwin, said: "By working with faith organisations, Citizens Advice Bureaux can reach out and provide advice services to some of the most vulnerable in our communities."

Over a third of Anglican dioceses has voted in favour of women bishops so far, including some of the most traditional. The trend of voting at present is overwhelmingly in support of admitting females to the episcopate.

The figures indicate that 91 per cent of bishops, 81 per cent of clergy and 83 per cent of laity have voted 'yes'. Even Anglo-Catholic dioceses such as Gibraltar and Sheffield have sanctioned the move.

General Synod 2012 will debate the legislation, and if approved it will then be passed to Parliament.

The first opportunity to appoint a woman bishop may be in 2013. Half the Anglican clergy are now female. The executive producer of Songs of Praise has suggested that the TV series could explore non-Christian faiths.

Tommy Nagra mooted the idea in an interview celebrating the 50th anniversary of the BBC's long-running religious programme.

Mr Nagra, a Sikh, said it would continue to be a Christian show but saw no reason why other religions could not be featured through the Christian prism.

The Royal School of Church Music (RSCM) was on Songs of Praise on October 2nd for the celebration concert of its 50th anniversary. On October 9th it is the second viewing of a programme recorded in Salisbury, with an interview by Lindsay Gray, director at RSCM.

Reverend Linda Chester, Methodist minister, writes: "Our Circuit Leadership Team met for the first time last week as part of the new Exeter coast and country circuit.

"We will meet monthly to discuss the way forward, share and pray together. Although our 27 churches are diverse, ranging from large churches in Exeter with over 200 member and 15 nationalities on roll, to large and smaller churches in seaside towns, and small rural churches with 12 members, the overall feeling of the meeting was so positive and affirming.

"Already, through our sharing and praying together, a mutual trust and respect has built up. This is an excellent foundation for working together. Our new circuit will look to give support and encouragement to the important ecumenical links in our local areas.

"Both through our wider church groupings and in our Churches Together, good things are happening."

◆ RESIDENTS of Colyton and Colyford answered the parish council's plea for help with painting the St Andrew's Church railings in emphatic fashion. The first work party was staged on Thursday, September 22nd with a very good turnout. Parish clerk Liz Berry said: "The task would have been a huge one for John Rollings, the part-time maintenance man, but proving that many hands do make light work, almost two thirds of the 500 railings were cleaned off and painted by the willing volunteers. Thanks must go to the ladies of the church and Brainwave — who supplied teas and coffee — and Barry Seaforth, a local painter who has agreed to paint one of the three gates in his own time

Council joins police surgery

SEATON Town Council and Devon and Cornwall Police's Seaton Neighbourhood Beat Team will hold a joint surgery today in The Square, Seaton.

Charity stages church concert

The following people are kindly taking part in this concert: Kroft Original, Sue Giles, Bosom Friends and Uplyme Gospel Choir.

THE winners of Axminster Carnival Committee's Misplaced Articles Competition have been revealed.

Nicky Wills won the section for adults, while Amy and Mikila Vernon were joint winners of the under-16 section, followed by Annabel Blockwell.

"We would also like to thank The Sweet Shop and the library for giving out and collecting the entry forms.

"More than 50 people took part in the competition."

Celebration

AXMINSTER-BASED charity Health and Local Food For Families (HALFF) will be celebrating its fifth birthday by putting on an event in the town's guildhall on Friday, October 7th.

The action starts at 10am when puppeteer Tallulah Swirls kicks off the event with her food-friendly version of The Princess And The Pea.

Hot on her heels will be chef, restaurateur and food writer Mark Hix, who will demonstrate how to make three autumn produce-themed recipes.

Homemade pizza and apple juice will be on sale afterwards and there will be a raffle and stalls.

All are welcome, including pre-school children.

Jason to open a martial arts dojo

A LITTLE known martial art has opened a new centre in Honiton.

The Bujinkan Gin Yanagi Dojo is celebrating its sixth year as the only affiliated Taka-Seigi dojo in England.

It opened its new dojo — training centre — at the Honiton Sports centre on Thursday, September 29th.

Under the guidance of Dr Massaki Hatsumi, (34th Grandmaster) the Gin Yanagi Dojo trains in the martial art of Ninjutsu (also known as Budo Taijutsu).

This 900-year-old martial art combines nine individual martial lineages. Within these nine schools can be found 18 traditional topics of study including Taijutsu - unarmed fighting, Ninja Ken - sword, Shurikenjutsu - throwing weapons and Shinobi iri - stealth and infiltration.

Last October Jason Everett-Brown, club founder, returned from Japan with three of his senior students, having spent an intensive training schedule at the Hombu dojo with the grandmaster and many other Shihan instructors in order to bring back the latest teachings, ideas and techniques.

Followers claim that to train in Ninjutsu is to walk undiscovered path with an open mind. Everyone's journey is different. It can change your perspective, motivations and goals.

Six pairs of swifts nest in village

HEMYOCK has been identified as a hot spot for swifts.

Back in May, the Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) team, the RSPB and Devon Wildlife Trust teamed up to appeal for sightings of swift nests and low-flying "screaming parties".

This followed similar surveys in 2009 and 2010 which reported no sightings of the birds in the AONB. This year, the response from local people has been more encouraging, with Hemyock emerging as a particular hotspot.

Reports came in of at least six pairs nesting in the village.

Locals have been praised for helping conservationists get a better understanding of swifts in the Blackdown Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Blackdown Hills AONB manager Linda Bennett said: "The full results of the survey will take a little longer to analyse, but I am delighted at the response.

"It's great to know that we have breeding pairs, and we must continue to monitor them in future years. Swift numbers have fallen dramatically in the South West recently, and we must do everything we can to help them to thrive.

"I would like to thank everyone in the Blackdown Hills who took part, and encourage even more people to get involved next year."

Swifts nest in the UK for just three months over the summer, and have now returned to Africa for the winter.

For more information on swift conservation in the Blackdown Hills, call the AONB office on 01823 680681.

The Blackdown Hills AONB was designated in 1991 to protect the landscape for the nation. It is one of 46 AONBs in the UK. It covers 370sq km of land on the Devon and Somerset border.

The Blackdown Hills AONB Partnership brings together local authorities, conservation organisations, national agencies, parish councils and community groups to help ensure that the Blackdown Hills remains a healthy, living landscape for future generations.

Injuries unit night closure

HONITON Minor Injuries Unit (MIU) will continue to be closed from 11pm until 7.30am.

The temporary night-time closure that started in June will continue while staffing issues are assessed.

Only a small number of people are likely to be affected. The MIU typically sees between two and five people a week during the 11pm-7.30am period.

Local people will still be able to access 24-hour medical cover via the out-of-hours GP service Devon Doctors, which can arrange to see patients at the community hospital if required, but by appointment only.

Residents who suffer minor injury or illness overnight are advised to contact NHS Direct for advice on 08454647 or visit www.nhsdirect.nhs.uk.

Alternatively, contact Devon Doctors on 0845 6710 270 or use the minor injuries units at Tiverton, Exmouth or Exeter.

Bring on the blues

BLUES are making a splash in the home this season and dipping into the trend is a great way to lift your spirits. So even if blue skies can't be guaranteed outside, you can make sure the forecast's always good indoors, with the best blue buys for rooms.

Even if blue skies can't be guaranteed outside, you can make sure the forecast's always good indoors with the year's coolest shades.

Blues are punching above their weight and dominating in homeware, undoubtedly helped by the seal of approval from royal bride Kate Middleton, who wore the colour for her engagement announcement and the day after her wedding.

"Fashion's taken blues to heart and our summer wardrobes will be filled with clothes in all its dazzling shades. Home designers are mirroring that trend," says Louise Smith, Dulux's global colour designer.

"Blue is associated with the power to soothe and relax. It's ideal for finally banishing the dull, sombre tones of winter and making rooms look fresh and invigorated."

This colour palette's an easy winner too, reminding us of cloudless skies and glittering seas and pools. Teamed with crisp white it can conjure a relaxed, informal beach house feel, or you can be more dramatic by using deep indigo tones.

"The main focus is bold, punchy and strong. Cobalt, royal blue, navy and azure rather than softer shades," advises Marc Petring, head of marketing at furniture chain Dwell.

"It takes confidence, but you can dip your toe into blues by experimenting with one statement piece of furniture, a rug or blue accessories. Too much blue can be oppressive so be sure to mix it up with whites or greys."

Rich, sultry, sophisticated inky blues through to pale pastels can all play a part in rooms. So don't be cautious, dive right in!

OUT & ABOUT

● DEVON-BASED company Theatre Alibi has a nationwide reputation for imaginative and high quality work for families. This autumn the company brings Deep Down Cowboys, its latest show for five to ten-year-olds, to the Theatre Royal in Plymouth from Tuesday, October 18th.

Deep Down Cowboys is jam-packed with action and hugely enjoyable for children and adults alike. It's the story of three friends who live deep below the sea in a Russian submarine.

For more information or to book tickets contact the box office on (01752) 267222 or online at www.theatreroyal.com.

Bet your shirt on a great racing deal

THE new season begins at Exeter Racecourse on Thursday, October 6.

To celebrate the return of racing, the course has joined forces with two local businesses, which means every racegoer will receive £10 off a meal worth £20 or more at the Coal and Grill Bar in Exeter's Princesshay, and £5 off purchases of £50 or more at Leonard Coombe, Master Saddlers and Country Life, in Newton Abbot.

General manager Alice Everitt said: "It's great to continue our ongoing association with both Princesshay and Leonard Coombe, and we hope it will be an added incentive for people to come along and enjoy a day at the races.

"We also have giveaways on each race day until Christmas and have teamed up with Exeter Chiefs, Princess Theatre Torquay, the South West Equine Fair and Racing Post books."

Exeter is arguably one of the South West's best racecourses, with past luminaries such as Desert Orchid, Kauto Star, Denman and Best Mate gracing the track, and Everitt said she was looking forward to seeing more top prospects beginning their racing careers at Exeter this season.

"It's a bit like watching Premier League footballers as they start out on their careers and it's a great place to spot future superstars. Last season Spirit Son won a race and, all being well, he could go on to feature in some of the country's top hurdle races," she added.

The highlight of the year is the Haldon Gold Cup on November 1st and Philip Hobbs and Paul Nicholls have both pinpointed the race for the seasonal debuts of Captain Chris and Ghizao respectively.

Merchant adds extra Pavilions date

THE Emmy, BAFTA and Golden Globe award-winning co-creator of The Office and Extras (both for BBC) is about to embark on his first ever stand-up comedy tour.

Stephen Merchant Live: Hello Ladies takes the stage at Plymouth Pavilions next month, and due to popular demand an extra performance has been added on Friday November 4th in addition to the show on Thursday, November 3rd.

Globally known for his acclaimed collaborative work with partner Ricky Gervais, Merchant has at last decided to take his considerable stand-up talents on the road.

It's not widely known that he started his career as a stand-up comedian and radio presenter, at XFM where he met Gervais. Bristolian Merchant, along with Gervais and Karl Pilkington, feature in the Guinness Book Of World Records for having the most downloaded internet show of all time.

Tickets for the Plymouth show cost £27.50, £25 and £22.50. To book tickets contact the box office on 0845 146 1460 or visit www.plymouthpavilions.com.

Please note that the November 3rd performance cannot be booked online.

Coupé joins Mini army

IN the space of a decade, BMW has achieved something many thought impossible.

Since 2001 its Mini range has clocked up two million sales and is available in 90 markets around the world. Not bad for something cynics thought would be a fashion flash in the pan.

Part of that success can be attributed to the regular introduction of new bodystyles. The original three-door hatch spawned a convertible, then a "mini" estate and more recently a full four-seat compact SUV, the Countryman.

You can now add a two-seater coupé to the list, a variant Mini executives hope will attract buyers seeking a more focused and sporty experience.

The Mini Coupé performs its duties as a halo model for the rest of the range with aplomb. Its heavily raked windscreen and low-slung profile is the most dramatic look yet for a Mini.

With a hatchback tailgate that opens to reveal a maximum volume of 280 litres plus a through-load slot into the cabin, it's on par with the estate-like Clubman. Up front, there's the usual oddment spaces you'll find in any Mini.

Thankfully such changes haven't resulted in a reduction in the quality of the car's ride. Yes, it's a bit stiffer than a regular three-door hatch, but you get to keep your fillings at the end of a journey. The trade-off is a more chuckable and engaging drive, which is what you'd expect from a two-seater coupé.

Reinforcing the car's sporty character is an engine line-up comprised of Mini's more powerful diesel and petrol units. There's no One or One D here, as the Coupé range starts with the familiar Cooper badge and its 122 horsepower offering.

The Cooper S shares the Cooper's 1.6 petrol unit but adds a turbo to produce 184 horsepower, while the John Cooper Works variant's output from the same motor is a heady 211 horsepower.

Diesel fans can opt for the Cooper SD, which boasts a 2.0-litre turbo unit outputting 143 horsepower. It also offers the lowest emissions and economy performance — 114g/km and 65.7mpg respectively.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

Grizzly places for next year are snapped up in just a few hours

WHEN entries for the 25th Grizzly and Cub Run went online, the 2,500 places were filled in hours.

This might leave many disappointed runners here and abroad, but could this make the Grizzly on March 11th the most popular run in the country?

Although the tough 20-mile, multi-terrain race is now full, entries for the Junior Grizzly and Fun Run on Saturday, March 10th will be open soon.

It has been a busy week for Axe Valley Runners.

A 40-mile Run for Tibet on World Peace Day was completed by Dave Kelf, from Gorleston to the highest peak in Norfolk.

After two days of running, Dave reached the summit of Beacon Hill, where he read 40 peace messages.

This coincided with the main Climb for Tibet team reaching the summit of Kilimanjaro for the same purpose.

Messages are released in a similar way as Tibetan prayers fly out from coloured flags in Tibet.

On Sunday, September 18th, Mark Cary was the lone Axe Valley runner to get up on a cold, wet morning to take part in the Votwo Kamikaze adventure run being held in the rolling fields of Mapperton.

This run is a gruelling eight-to-nine-mile course compromising hills, river runs, rope climbs, slides and bogs.

A good turnout of around 300 competitors participated from all over the UK and of all abilities.

Mark, who has run both this Kamikaze and the one in Pippingford Forest, finished 103rd with a time of 1hr 41mins, smashing last year's time by 50 minutes.

Geoff Woodward and Steve Reynolds took part in the Uphill to Wells run. This is a 29-mile run starting at Uphill near Weston-super-Mare and finishing at Wells Cathedral.

This is normally run as a relay but the lads were persuaded to take part as soloists.

They finished in 7hrs 18 mins, 3rd out of five solo runners.

Both felt that the views were worth the long day but suffered through a lack of water at several checkpoints.

HONITON HOCKEY

Honiton Hornets 2 Ottery Crickets 2nds 0

HONITON played their first league game against Ottery in unusually warm conditions for hockey.

This game is always closely contested, yet from the start Honiton had most of the possession. Their first goal came midway through the first half when after a period of sustained attacks Honiton were awarded a short corner due to an Ottery infringement.

The initial pass out from Jean Herniman went wide of the intended target but Sophie George collected the ball and slotted into the left hand corner of the goal with her initial strike.

The Honiton midfield and defence played well to support the forwards and the team continued to attack for the remainder of the first half.

They were awarded a second goal when a quickly taken free hit through Dawn Mayo saw Lucy Le Cocq free to make a run from the halfway line to score an excellent individual goal.

In the second half Honiton continued to have most of the possession but some great play by Ottery's defence, in particular their goalkeeper, kept the score at 2-0. Player of the match was Lucy Le Cocq.

Honiton continue to practise on a Tuesday evening at Culmpton Sports Centre at 7pm until 8.30pm meeting in Honiton at 6.30pm.

New members always welcome regardless of ability. Contact details: www.wcwhl.co.uk/Public/Clubs.php

HONITON GOLF CLUB

Score of 65.6 wins the Texas scramble

A TEXAS scramble was held to raise funds for a stair lift to be added to the club.

The teams of three almost pick themselves now that they are no longer drawn by the secretary's computer.

The game started at 9am in light drizzle. Straight from the shotgun things got competitive and the leading teams were divided by decimal points only.

Eventually, in first place were Bob Cleal, Mike Stroud and Jim Wallis with a net 65.6. Second were Mike Williams, John Marchant and Keith Lloyd with 66.1, leaving Andy Wall, Spencer Macklin and Richard Beard third with 66.5.

Tuesday Mixed

The monthly drawn-for-partners stableford competition played for the Chivers Goblets.

The course was playing challengingly as the mist kept coming and going during play.

The winners of this month's goblets were Maureen Tollmache and Stan Squire with 37pts.

This was the first cup that new member Maureen had won at Honiton. The goblets were presented by past lady captain Jennifer Pyle. In second place were Avril Shepherd and John Northover, with 31pts. John chipped in on both the 8th and 9th holes. In third place were Ro Poole and John Dickinson with 24pts.

Ladies Section

In the second round of the Del Cup, a two-round, 36-hole stableford competition, the top three players were separated only by a whisker, with Anne Davies emerging as winner with 62 points (27 + 35) on countback from runner-up Mona Carter, also on 62 points (32+30), and third place going to Catherine Doherty, again on 62 points (33+29).

The Wednesday Stableford results Silver Division saw Anne Davies on top again with 35 points, and Mona Carter 2nd with 30 points.

In Bronze 1 Division Jan Dickinson made the winning score of 33 points, with Olive Pope in second place on 29 points (countback) from Catherine Doherty in third also on 29 points.

Senior Section

It was cup mania for the seniors. First up was the Ken Fordie Trophy, an individual stableford competition played off a reduced handicap.

With the course playing long, scoring was difficult but Chris Chalker, with 36 points, squeezed a win by one point to lift the cup.

◆ CHRIS Chalker, Jim Wallis and John Foster with the Longhurst Cup

Next was the Longhurst Cup, rearranged after being abandoned during a downpour.

Chris Chalker capped a very successful week by again managing to get his hand on the cup.

Accompanied by Jim Wallis and John Foster, they recorded 44 points in this best-ball competition ahead of the trio of Vic Wood, Fred Thomas and Dick Rowe on 42 points.

Jim Wallis then turned provider. As the Devon Veteran Golfers' representative at Honiton, he organised the Norman Barker knockout competition for pairs running throughout the summer.

The winners, Pete Morgan and Vic Wood, received their prize from Jim, having beaten the octogenarian pairing of Bill Spice and John Egerton in the final.

A busy week was concluded with two friendly matches. Honiton recorded a home victory over Stover by one game in six to complete the double. An away match with Bigbury was less successful, only a half salvaged from a strong home team.

HONITON YOUTH RUGBY

Last-minute defeat for the Under-10s

IN a highly competitive and entertaining opening game, Honiton Under-10s suffered a last-minute defeat at the hands of Devonport.

Having been shaken by an early pushover try from the visitors, Honiton defended stoically to deny them another try in the first half. The second period opened with some free flowing passing with both teams getting close to scoring.

Devonport's second try came when they drove over from short range. Honiton started a fightback, first with a nippy run from Jake Williams and then a magical equaliser from Lewis Glead.

With only moments remaining, Devonport managed to break through for a third time, winning the game. Players of the Match were Jake Williams, Lewis Glead, Rhys Phillips and Harry Shepherd.

In most unseasonal weather Honiton Under-12s opened their campaign with a match against Newton Abbot.

First blood went to Newton Abbot when a string of broken tackles led to their first try.

This seemed to inspire Honiton and with some foraging runs by their forwards, Sam Phillips went over with Jack Katene's conversion levelling the score.

The second half was littered with handling errors and poor tackling by both teams, something both coaching teams will be keen to address.

Harry Todd ran the opposition ragged but the lack of support and his tireless efforts saw him rewarded with a try gain converted by Katene.

Unfortunately yet more defensive errors and missed tackles saw Newton Abbot level the score.

Ben Phillips crashed over after a good powerful run in the dying seconds only for it not to be awarded for an infringement in the build-up. All in all a fair result but there is plenty to work on for both sides.

LYME REGIS GOLF CLUB

WITH the end of the summer season fast approaching, the Lyme Regis Golf Club Senior section staged its final monthly stableford of the season.

Although the weather was somewhat squally there were some excellent scores. In particular Peter Cogan (8) recorded yet another outstanding round with a 39 points to win division one. In second place on countback was Jim Rowland-Rees (11) also with 39 points. Close behind with 37 points was Peter Hardisty (17).

Peter also recorded a hole in one on the eighth. Division two was won by Peter Williams (21) with 37 points pushing Richard Cridge (26) into second place on countback. Third place was taken by Mike List (23) also with 37 points.

While some of the players found the conditions difficult, the scores were, in the main very respectable and eight "twos" were recorded.

The win by Peter Cogan also placed him first in the summer eclectic competition. In second place was Brian Walley with Keith Gibson third.

The final round of the junior order of merit was played in excellent weather and course conditions on Saturday, September 24th. David Lyon (8) and George Yorke (10) both played outstanding rounds of golf to record a net 72. David was declared the eventual winner on countback. Kai-To-Li (12) was close behind with a net 73.

Lyme Regis Golf Club Captains Charity Day

On a day almost perfect for good golf with very little wind, the occasional light rain shower but with fairways and greens still in excellent condition, more than 160 golfers took to the Lyme Regis course for the annual Captain's Charity Golf Day.

This year club captain Ray Farrell has nominated a local organisation, the Hub, as his charity. Over the year the Hub has already received money from other events but this was to be the biggest contributor of the year.

Played with teams of four in the Progressive Bowmaker format, there were some excellent scores to match the near-perfect conditions.

For the earlier part of the day the team of greenkeeping staff of David Everett were in the lead with a good score of 106.

However, this score was soon overtaken. Eventual winners were the team of Tom Glover, Charlie Griffin, Matt Coburn and Steve Berry with an outstanding score of 124 points. In second place were Mike Warren, Jane Southcombe, John Thomas and Tony Warwick with 112 Points.

Third with 111 points were the father-and-son combination of Roger and George Seed, partnered by Adrian Morgan and Jane Andrews.

In all the charity day amassed the excellent sum of £3,500 for the Hub, a sum of which the club can be justifiably proud.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

NICK Bradley-Carter, of Honiton Running Club, took part in the Taunton Deane 10k road race.

The weather was a bit wet but the race was a sellout with over 600 taking part with a good crowd of spectators defying the rain. Nick finished in 48.28 in 149th place.

On the same day, Olivia Higginson and Graham Reeves ran in the Woodbury 10K.

This is a pleasant run around the pretty village of Woodbury with varied countryside and gradients. Money raised goes towards well-building in rural Kenya.

Graham was 31st in 44.51 and although Olivia had to stop with a painful stitch at 4k she got going again and finished in 55.20 which was two minutes better than she did last year. She was 57th.

There were 78 runners and the race was won by Dave Stone, of Exmouth Harriers in 35.42.

Also on the same day, Richard Harris raced further afield, taking part in the Berlin Marathon. He was pleased to finish in 3 hours, 33 mins.

It was really hot and sunny but Richard loved it, finding the atmosphere amazing. On the Saturday he took part in the 'Breakfast Run'. This was 3 miles starting at a palace and finishing at the Olympic Stadium. There were thousands of people taking part and at the end they gave everyone breakfast. The whole experience was truly memorable.

Over a period of four days, Honiton's Steve Boyes took part in the Great Barrow Run Challenge in Suffolk. The runners must cover over 100 miles on this multi-terrain course equating to four marathons in four days.

Each day runners set off from headquarters in Barrow with each of the runs covering a different course. Steve got lost on the first day, running two more miles than he should have and finishing in 4 hours 59 minutes. The second day he ran with two others and he somehow got on the wrong route. They ran nine miles on that, then flagged down a van and went back to the checkpoint. Steve kept on track for days three and four managing the correct distance. He finished these legs in 4 hours 42 mins and 4 hours 12 mins.

DEVON SUPER DARTS LEAGUE

ON Saturday, September 24th, Axminster-based East Devon travelled to Ker Street Social Club in Plymouth for a fixture in the Devon Super League.

Having been beaten severely 8-1 in their last match East Devon wanted to quickly restore some pride and give Ker Street a tough match.

First up for East Devon was Ed Coultres, who won his game 3-2 and had the highest dart average on the night (26.49).

Bert Trivett (21.49) lost the next game 3-2, but Rory Tucker (23.61) restored East Devon's lead winning his game 3-2.

Dan Shakespeare (18.99) and Keith Rockett (15.35) lost their games 3-1 and 3-0 to give Ker Street a 3-2 lead.

Mark Fisher (22.65) won his game 3-1 to bring it level 3-3, but Ron Smith (14.58) lost his game 3-0, to give Ker Street the edge again 4-3.

Mark Bradley (20.31) won his game 3-0 to level the match 4-4, meaning it was all down to the last game for victory.

Showing none of the obvious nerves he had, Mark Doherty (24.24) won his game 3-0 to give East Devon their first victory in the Devon Super League.

HONITON NETBALL

Girls are unbeaten

Division One
Flamingos 21, HiQ 8
OPG 49, Uplowman 29
Wasps 40, Bo-Peeps 24

THREE weeks into the season and OPG and Flamingos still lead the way.

No changes in the league table this week with OPG staying top and Bo-Peeps at the foot of the table. OPG were up against Uplowman and they got off to a good start with a 15-6 lead. With Viv Grant playing well for Uplowman they pulled back to 17-22 at half way.

With Denise Meyers in determined form OPG re-asserted their authority to finish the game with a 49-29 win, with a point for Uplowman.

The Flamingos versus HiQ game was a low-scoring affair. The honours went to Flamingos eventually at 21-8, although HiQ had led 3-2 at quarter time and were just 5-4 down at half way.

Katie Marsh was the Flamingos star whilst Stacey Salter was the best HiQ player.

The Wasps against Bo-Peeps game was a slow starter but with Wasps on top by 10-7. In the second quarter Wasps extended their lead to 19-12. The third period saw both teams playing well with Nicola Field in good form for Wasps they started the final period 29-19 in front.

Although Debbie Wheeler played well for Bo-Peeps it was Wasps who finished on top by 40-24 with the Peeps picking up their first point.

Division Two
Tip Top Trees 34, NAS 15
Howden Hawks 42, JD Tyres 26
Weather Gls 49, Sidmth Tou 11

Weather Girls maintained their unbeaten run with a convincing victory over Sidmouth Toucans.

They dominated throughout with Rebecca Green having an excellent game, and although Anna Rowson worked hard for Sidmouth they were never in the game and went down by 49-11.

After forfeiting their game last week the Howden Hawks bounced back against JD Tyres. The first quarter was close at 4-3 but by half way Hawks were 19-10 in front and finished victors by 42-26 thanks to some play from Hayley ward with Tanya Broom working hard for JD.

Tip Top trees maintained their 100 per cent run and second place with a fine win over NAS.

Three Ts led 4-0 at quarter time before opening up a 18-3 lead thanks to good work from Harriet Eaton at GD frustrating the NAS attack. With Heather Beviss playing well for NAS they played themselves back into contention in the third period to start the final quarter 10-24 behind, 3Ts got back in control however to end victors by 34-15.

COLYTON
FOOTBALL CLUBTanners get three points
in comeback

WITH players missing, Colyton were grateful to welcome back Ian Gooding for his second game of the season against an Uplowman side who were yet to pick up a point this season.

It looked as if it was going to be a comfortable afternoon for the Tanners as, within the first five minutes, Colyton created three great opportunities and should have taken the lead at least on a couple of occasions, Vince Foxwell coming the closest, striking the post from an acute angle.

Colyton did not take advantage of the chances they created and allowed Uplowman a foot-hold in the game and although they posed no goal threat themselves they certainly held their own for the remainder of the half after the opening barrage.

Colyton knew this was the type of game they needed to win and set about the second half knowing there were goals to be had against a shaky Uplowman back line.

However, for the first time this season, Coly started the second period sluggishly and 10 minutes after the restart a long clearance which was misjudged allowed an opposing striker to steal in. He was hauled down by keeper Reid for a certain penalty which was duly dispatched, giving the away side an undeserving lead.

Colyton showed good determination and continued to carve out chances which went begging. It wasn't until the 70th minute when some tidy build-up play allowed constant threat Richard Tratt to nod in a George Moore cross.

Just five minutes later he doubled his season's tally when he out-muscled the centre back, skipped around the keeper and slid the ball home, proving to be the winner as the rest of the game was played out comfortably for the home side.

Despite a stuttering performance it was another good three points for Colyton as they continue to impress early on this season.

They will be looking to advance into the next round of the Devon Senior Cup as they welcome south Devon opponents Riviera Spurs.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

Farway win at last to climb off the bottom

FARWAY United finally claimed their first win of the season as they beat West & Middle Chinnock 4-1 to climb off the bottom of the Premier Division.

Farway hadn't played badly in their defeats against Winsham, current leaders Lyme Regis or Beaminster but manager Andy Bailey knew they needed a win to boost confidence and get points on the board.

"A win at last," said Bailey. "Played three and lost three is not the greatest statistic, although they have all been very close games but it is good to get that first three points."

With Bailey absent, Paul King was actually in charge of the game and he saw James Salter score twice with further goals from Bradley King and Stuart Broom.

While Farway celebrated their first win, it was more of the same for Lyme Regis as they thumped Perry Street 6-1 to maintain their 100 per cent record.

"We were 6-0 up after 35 minutes and we then took our foot off the gas, although to be fair, Perry Street came out with all guns blazing in the second half," said Lyme boss Robin Townsend.

There were two goals apiece for Adam Caddy and Dominic Rowe, with Joe Bond and Steve Batey completing the scoring.

Beaminster are also unbeaten this season after a 6-0 win over Merriott Rovers, with Ben Ward grabbing a hat-trick plus further goals from Murray Legg, Tom Hounsell and Liam Arnetts.

Ilminster Reserves claimed their second win of the season with a 2-1 triumph over reigning champions South Petherton with Dan Vining scoring both goals.

In Division One Barrington thumped Ilminster Colts 5-1 to record their first win of the campaign.

"It was about time," said delighted manager Gary Stranger. "The lads thought it might be easier having dropped down a division but it has been hard work."

Two strikes from Craig Steer and an own goal put Barrington in charge at half time, and further goals from Shane Gundry and Scott O'Halloran, a scorcher from 25 yards, wrapped up the points.

Forton Rangers stay top of Division One after a 4-1 win over Norton Athletic, with player-manager Dave Fowler among the scorers. Andy Stevenson and Carl Grinter (two) also hit the net.

One of the biggest wins of the weekend came in Uplyme's 9-2 thrashing off Charmouth in Division Two. Stuart King and Adam Neale led the way with hat-tricks, with further goals from Harry Thresher, Ryan Prenderville and club chairman Gavin Fowler.

In Division Three Combe A and Hawkchurch United shared a 10-goal thriller with Hawkchurch boss Joe Carter the more frustrated man after Combe's Ross Bicknell scored a late equaliser to salvage their first point of the season.

"We shared nine goals in our last league game (5-4 win over Winsham Reserves), 10 this time and it will probably be 11 next week," said Carter.

Combe's other goals came from Dan O'Connor (two), Jay Stewart and Paul Jacobs while Hawkchurch's scorers were Gavin Herrod, Dan Turner, Simon Harding and Stuart Weir (two).

Chard United stay top of Division Three with Marco Quedas continuing his impressive scoring form in the 4-2 win at W&M Chinnock Reserves.

"He has been a brilliant signing for us," said Chard boss James Govier.

Ricky Anderson, Ian Wells-Burr and an own-goal completed the scoring.

Millwey Rise Reserves shared six goals with Shepton Beauchamp Reserves, thanks to a late equaliser from Ashey Hall following earlier goals from Levi Hoole and Mark Vaughan.

Chard United Reserves extended their unbeaten start to stay top of Division Four with a 5-4 win at Lyme Regis Bantams.

*Exeter University 3
Axminster Town 2*

A MAD two minutes before half-time cost Axminster Town the chance of their first win of the season.

Joel Seward had wiped out an early Ben Nash strike to make it 1-1 in the 35th minute as the Tigers moved up a gear and manager Ray Self was looking forward to the half-time break and preparing his players for a big effort in the second half.

But the game turned in just two minutes before half-time as Axminster lost their concentration to allow the dangerous Nash to complete his hat-trick and put the students firmly in control.

"Instead of deservedly going into half-time at 1-1, we were suddenly 3-1 down and we didn't deserve that on the balance of play," said Self.

"It was a nightmare couple of minutes in which we gave away two soft goals. But all credit to the lads as they responded really well and we went on to win the second half 1-0 even though, sadly, we didn't get anything out of the game."

New signing Alex Chamberlain gave the Tigers hope and a late chance for Seaward went begging as the visitors strove for an equaliser.

"Overall it was our best performance of the season and I feel it was a step forward," added Self.

*Ottery St Mary 0
Appledore 4*

OTTERY St Mary slumped to their sixth defeat of the season as they were brushed aside by the visiting Fishermen at Washbrook Meadows.

Goals from player-manager Keith Shapland, Ed Yeo (two) and Mark Cann clinched victory and, but for an impressive performance by Otters keeper Matt Slark, the damage could have been a lot worse.

FOOTBALL CLUB

*East Budleigh Res. 3
Awliscombe United 3*

AWLISCOMBE battled hard to earn a point against East Budleigh after going 3-1 down.

The game finished 3-3 with Nick Trenchard scoring two headed goals and Mark Reed converting from the penalty spot after a handball in the area.

Awls manager Martin Willmington named Nick Trenchard as his man of the match.

AXMOUTH UTD

AXMOUTH United manager Laurie Forino was without nine players and took a squad of just 13, including himself, on Saturday to Woodbury.

With four of those carrying slight injuries, they travelled hoping to preserve their unbeaten start to the season. In a tight game overshadowed by a physical approach, Forino's belief in his squad's strength in depth was proved with them securing a convincing 2-0 victory despite the succession of poor challenges.

With a number of personnel and positional changes, the Axes failed to create chances in the same manner as recent weeks but made the breakthrough in the 26th minute when a hotly disputed free kick was delivered perfectly by Jamie Hughes for the impressive Matt Ellis to time a great run and leap in front of the keeper to head home, taking a fist in the face at the same time. Axmouth continued to show the better focus and so led 1-0 at the break.

The home side momentarily seemed to have sorted themselves after the break and played better football. Their pressure forced a misplaced pass from defender Chris Bowles and as the striker raced into the box, Bowles made a great saving tackle to rescue the error and cleared to safety.

It was as much as Woodbury could muster though, as Axmouth again assumed control and the back four of Sweeney, Bowles, Sweetland (stand in captain for the day) and man of the match Jake Dack comfortably snuffed out the home side's attempts to break through.

Another free kick saw Hughes curl the ball up and over the wall but the keeper got his fingers to tip it over the bar after 56 minutes. Just 10 minutes later and the lead was doubled as Ellis chased down a through ball from Sweeney and sent over a fine cross which Clarke was unlucky not to finish but the rebound was met by the advancing Dan Jeeves to smash into the roof of the net.

Axmouth controlled from there on in, with Scott Dyer and Berry alongside Hughes in dominant form in the middle of the park and keeper James Goodhew without a save to make, yet there was still time for excitement as sub Jon Taylor took a punch from a defender who was promptly red-carded.

Forino, who had to come on five minutes from the end to replace injured Berry, raced into the box to get on the end of a lovely passing move which saw Jeeves head back across goal for his manager who, despite meeting it well, saw his effort deflect off the keeper's shoulder and face on to the bar in the final moments.

Forino was again full of praise for his team. He said: "The lads on duty did themselves and the club proud today."

"This was a great result on a difficult day and is testament to all the work we do in training."

"Our spirit and attitude was first-class in spite of some provocation at times, although to be fair I think some of the decisions today were the real cause of most frustrations."

"We need to keep improving as I'm sure this is going to be a tough division and we now look forward to a local derby game with Beer Reserves in the cup next week."

"Without doubt that should be an exciting encounter."

The first eleven, and that's goals not footballers

*Perry Street League Division One
 Millwey Rise 11
 Perry Street Reserves 1*

MILLWEY Rise manager Shane Featherstone wants to make the club's new home at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre as intimidating as their old ground in First Avenue.

An 11-1 thrashing of Perry Street, with Terry Emmett scoring a superb four goals, was a signal of intent and a fitting way to celebrate the official opening of the new facility that is geared up to stage Premier Division football.

"We only lost three games in five years at our old ground so it was a real fortress for us," said Featherstone.

"Not many teams liked coming to play on that slope but now we have a fantastic pitch with a brilliant surface on which teams can play football and we want to make that a fortress too."

Visiting teams will certainly enjoy playing at Cloakham Lawn but whether they will get much joy out of an impressive Millwey side, who made it three wins out of three, remains to be seen.

"It is an excellent facility and Millwey are a different class," said Perry Street manager Nick Govier. "I reckon they would beat most Premier Division sides at the moment."

Emmett is certainly a quality striker and with Sam Dibbling, who scored a hat-trick, they present a formidable goal threat.

Matt Lewis, Mike Cullum and Alex Rockett completed the scoring with Jason Newbury grabbing a consolation goal for Perry Street.

"Moving to Cloakham Lawn was a brilliant move for Millwey Rise and it was a proud day for the founders of the club who were at the match on Saturday," added Featherstone.

"This club is definitely going places."
